It is quite important that some steps should be taken to increase the number of books in the Sunday School Library. Many of us have in our homes books that are suitable for this purpose, that can be given with but little if any sacrifice, and such gifts will be quite acceptable. One of our most earnest supporters has given to the school over one hundred new books at a cost of $100. We would like the donations to come in during the next three weeks so that they can be placed in the library at the same time the new books are. Please send all donations to the church which is open most of the time.

By order of the Trustees, seats will be held for those renting same, until immediately after the second singing, at which time they will be thrown open to the public.

MR. H. H. RAGAN, the celebrated traveler and lecturer, who in the past thirteen years has been delighting large eastern audiences with his superbly illustrated lectures has completed arrangements to give his lectures in California. The trustees of the Church on the Unity learning this fact, took immediate advantage of it to open negotiations with Mr. Ragan's manager. The result being favorable, the following five lectures will be given

May 1	- -	Paris, the Magnificent.
May 5	-	Ramblings in Rome.
May 8	- - -	A Trip to Alaska.
May 12	-	Shakespeare and the Avon.
May 15	- -	London—Old and New.

The Ragan Illustrated Lectures.

The Trustees have decided to make Mr. Ragan's first lecture, which occurs Monday evening, May 1st, in the Church of the Unity, a complimentary one, admission being by cards of invitation. This is done with a firm belief that no better advertisement is possible for the four lectures which will follow. The opening subject will be "Paris, the Magnificent," and the others, "Ramblings in Rome," "A Trip to Alaska," "Shakespeare and the Avon," and "London Old and New." Each superbly and profusely illustrated.

Mr. Ragan, it should be borne in mind, is no novice, as for thirteen years he has held his position as the foremost Eastern lyceum lecturer upon subjects of foreign and American travel, in that time having given over 2000 lectures. Those who have heard him say that he is by nature well equipped for the work, as he possesses a good voice, and has the faculty of expressive word-painting, wasting no words and dwelling only upon the most interesting features of his theme. He has always been a great favorite at the Chautauqua (New York) Assembly, and of his lectures there, Bishop Vincent wrote, saying: "For brilliancy of illustration, for elegance of diction, for charming style of delivery, and for fullness of instruction, Mr. Ragan's lectures are pronounced by old and cultivated Chautauquans unsurpassed since the very beginning of the Chautauqua Institute."

Popular prices will prevail, as course tickets to the four public lectures (May 4, 8, 11 and 15) will be sold for $1.50, including a reserved seat; single lectures, 50 cents. Persons desirous of attending the invitation lecture May 1st, can secure a card of admission upon application to the Ladies at the door at the close of the service next Sunday morning. These cards admit two and are exchangeable without charge for two reserved seats.

Subject for sermon next Sunday morning: "Guardian Angels."

By application to the Secretary or his assistant desirable sittings can be secured at from three to thirty dollars a year, payable monthly, quarterly or yearly in advance.

By order of the Trustees, seats will be held for those renting same, until immediately after the second singing, at which time they will be thrown open to the public.

Some few of the liberal minded members of this congregation have clubbed together and raised a sum sufficient to buy tickets for members of the Orphan Asylum and Newsboys' Home for the matinee next Saturday afternoon to witness the Floral Pageant performance. We consider this setting a good example for others to follow.

A few more Hymn Books have been received and can be obtained from the Secretary in the West Vestibule. Price 50 cents.

The Floral Pageant now being prepared by the ladies under the management of Prof. Henry J. Kramer will be the finest performance of the kind ever given in this City and deserves the patronage of all from that fact alone, in addition it is for the benefit of this Church and it is the duty of all who are interested in our success to assist. It is to be hoped that with this the last request to be made for some time that everyone will respond liberally. And why not do so? Many of you think nothing of spending money in patroniz traveling shows that are not one-h .lf as enjoyable and deserving as this entertainment will be. Let us all for once show the ladies who have this matter in hand that their efforts in trying to raise money that we may have a pleasant church home is fully appreciated, and purchase as many tickets as we can honestly afford.

Prof. James is forming an orchestra for the benefit of the Unity Sunday School. Wanted, violins, viola, flutes, clarionetts, cornets, trombone and bass. One evening each week given to practice. Fine opportunity to those wishing such study. Leave name an l address 237 North Bunker Hill Avenue, or with Superintendent of Sunday School.

The price of tickets for the Floral Pageant are $1.00, 75c., 5 c. and 25c. for evening performance; for matinee 50c. and 25c. The $1.00 tickets can be bought any time from members of the committee immediately after the service or during the week. Don't go home without making a purchase.

The ladies of the Pageant request all that can, to bring flowers to the New Los Angeles Theatre on Friday morning next as early as possible. Bring plenty as many are required to complete the decorations.

We take this occasion to thank the ladies of this congregation, their friends, and all who have assisted in bringing about such a gratifying result in so soon being able to liquidate the debt of $1500 assumed less than a year ago by the Unity Church League, it is something to be proud of and goes to show what can be accomplished through united effort.

We should have a large Bible class connected with our Sunday School, and the Superintendent would like all those interested to attend on Sundays at 9:30 a. m. This makes an excellent opportunity for those having any desire to receive information upon Bible subjects and also prepares them for teachers and instructors.

Strangers are especially invited to register their names and address. Register kept in West Vestibule.

By reason of the rapid increase in the membership of the Sunday School there is a constant demand for new classes which cannot be formed for want of teachers. The school needs four new teachers for next Sunday. We want those who are interested in the moral training of children and who love the work and can be regular in their attendance.

The school is grateful to its many friends who have so kindly and liberally donated books to its library.

By application to the Secretary or his assistant desirable sittings can be secured at from three to thirty dollars a year, payable monthly, quarterly or yearly in advance.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The work laid out for the ensuing year demonstrates the fact that our revenue must be considerably increased in order to meet the outlay. There are many attending here regularly that can afford to give a larger sum than they are now contributing and many more that give us nothing that should give liberally. We have as our pastor one of the brighest and most intellectual men in this country; we propose to have the best of talent in our choir. We have a pleasant church home for you all and a welcome to all. How much is this worth to you, and how much can you afford to pay for it? The Church has in the past year done but little begging and proposes to do but little in the future, but places this matter before you as a business proposition. The good things of this life cannot be procured without some sacrifice of time and money and no independent spirit will accept things free who can afford to pay for them. Every person who attends this Church regularly should contribute a stated amount, no matter how little that may be, but let it be in full accord with their ability to do, without sacrifice to their family or self as to the necessities of life. Treat the Church with the same degree of liberality you would any agency that might furnish you with amusement or instruction. There are many that are not able to give us money, but can give some of their time and labor, which is oftentimes as valuable as money. If there are those that are unable to assist in anyway, let our good ladies look them up and the Trustees will see that they have sittings assigned to them, and in this way we can do the good for which we stand; but everyone should be doing something who comes and enjoys the benefits of our society, and if all do this the burden will be light, but if you fail to assist and perform your whole duty we cannot expect to succeed.

There is a steady and growing demand for teachers in our Sunday School. One of the principal reasons assigned by those invited to the position is want of qualification. All those interested in Bible study and especially all those willing to become teachers and seeking suggestions as to the best methods of Scripture study and interpretation will be cordially welcomed to membership in our adult Bible class as preparatory to the work of teaching and as convenient from which to make the selection of teachers as needed.

If there is any fault to be found with our church it is that of lack of sociability. Let us so far as possible remedy this. The regular Sunday School social held on the last Friday of each month furnishes an opportunity for the older people to meet with the children and with each other and together have a pleasant social time. Ice cream will be served to those that desire it. The object is to create sociability, make it pleasant for our pastor and wife, and to get better acquainted with one another. With this in view we hope to see a much larger attendance at all future socials.

THROUGH DEATH VALLEY

A Lecture by

FREDERICK I. MONSEN

will be given under the auspices of

...THE UNITY CLUB

in this Church
on Thursday evening

MAY THIRD, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK

Illustrated by one hundred superb Stereopticon views. The only pictures of this Desert Wonderland ever exhibited.

Endorsed by the Society of California Pioneers, the Geographical Society of California, and the San Francisco press

All the characteristic features of the Valley were described with the accuracy which can only be derived from close personal observation. The address derived an interest apart from the description and general narrative by reason of the clear location of the scenes pictured in [illegible]. The views, many of which were in colors, were very superior to the pictures usually thrown upon the canvas at a lecture.—S. F. Chronicle.

Fred I. Monsen held the immense audience which filled Metropolitan Temple spellbound last evening by his graphic account of Death Valley, illustrated by views taken by himself.—S. F. Call.

2:00 p. m. Regular Thursday reception by the Unity Church League. These receptions furnish an opportunity for all ladies of the congregation to become better acquainted with one another. There are so many that complain of the lack of sociability in our church, why not come to these receptions and when you meet together confer upon the subject of adding other features to what you are already doing to make our large congregation feel at home and welcome. Each and every one has a duty to perform towards this end and it can not be accomplished by staying at home and finding fault with those that are working.

Why is it that more of our older people were not out at the last Sunday School social, especially the parents? You should come and encourage those that are spending so much of their time in this work. Your duty does not end in just attending church on Sunday morning; much work must be done in order that you may enjoy the grand sermons of our pastor. Is there nothing due from you?

We want more active workers in our church. Come at 9:30 Sunday mornings and listen to the interesting teachings of Mr. Blakeley in the Bible class and see for yourselves what is going on in the Sunday School. We know there are many parents attending our church whose children are not in any Sunday School. Why is it? Bestir yourselves and support in all ways an organization that we know is doing so much good.

Quit staying at home and complaining about the unsocial features of our church. Is it not your duty as well as others to change this condition of things? All are welcome and suggestions are in order.

... IMPORTANT ...

On account of unusual expenses and the condition of the times, the Church is short of funds. We need more liberal donations from our congregation. If all will contribute the burden will be light. We ask you to help and for the balance of the year double your subscriptions and donations. Many are contributing nothing. Why is it? Is it worth nothing to you?

Rumors have been in the air that our Pastor had decided to leave us. Such is not the case. He will remain, and the result of his work in the future will depend largely upon the support he receives from his congregation.

Seats will be held at the morning service until immediately after the second singing. All seats will be free for the evening service.

ALL NOTICES for the Calendar must be written and left at the Church on Friday mornings, between 9 and 12 o'clock. No announcements will be made from the pulpit.

GOD'S EYE.

TUNE - ORTONVILLE

We cannot hide our inmost life
From Thee, our Father kind.
In silent prayer, or mental strife,
Thy love pervades the mind.

Thy sleepless Eye is ev'rywhere,
Beholding right and wrong;
Thou knowest all our grief and care,
And wishes, weak and strong.

In each distress, on Thee we call
To make us strong and free;
And may we do our work for all
As service due to Thee.

Anoint our eyes to see the light
In which the angels live;
And grant us grace to love the right,
To suffer, wait, forgive.

We pray, O God, for visions clear,
Along our dusty ways
To give us joy, and banish fear,
And brighten all our days.

PRAYER.

TUNE ITALY

Spirit divine and good,
Give us celestial food,
Grant us a song.
Friendship, forever near,
Cast out our doubt and fear,
May we thy Name revere,
Fearless and strong.

Breathe in our souls thy life,
Save us from wrong and strife,
Show us our way.
Help us to run our race,
Fill us with hope and grace,
Let us behold thy face,
Teach us to pray.

Spirits thy glory see,
Flaming in star and tree,
Smiling in flowers.
Send us a vision bright,
Beauty in heaven's light,
Giving our hearts delight,
Cheering the hours.

Lord of the cherubim,
Chanting their lofty hymn,
Angels thee praise.
Brothers of seraphs grand,
Heirs of the spirit-land,
Praise we thy mighty hand,
Guiding our days.

GOD'S IMAGE.

TUNE—CORONATION

Behold the Christ whose life divine
Reveals our Father's love,
And shows our souls the stars which shine
Upon our homes above.

His face reflects our Mother's smiles,
Which gladden all the spheres;
Through him, She comforts lands and isles,
And sheds and dries all tears.

He strives before our mortal eyes,
And wins the hardest fight,
And shows that man can ever rise,
Through God, to truth and right.

His spirit rises from the dead,
And draws the veil aside;
The crown of life adorns his head,
His Kingdom will abide.

In him we see our Maker's face,
In him our powers appear;
He's full of life, and love, and grace,
Our Christ, divine and dear.

—J. S. THOMSON.

Special Notice.

The Church needs several hundred dollars to cover a shortage in the expense account, and it is hoped that everybody will come next Sabbath fully prepared to make up the full amount. Why not mix some gold pieces and bank checks with the pennies, nickles,etc. and for once let capital and labor combine together and work harmoniously for one object and let that object be to show our pastor that we appreciate his efforts in other and more substantial ways than talk.

There is but one more opportunity to hear our pastor before his departure East for a two months vacation. Sunday, July 29, being the last, it is hoped that all interested in his and the Church's welfare will be present on this occasion and show by their presence that they wish him and his good wife a pleasant and safe journey.

Do thine own task, and be therefore content. —GOTHE.

Do the duty nearest thee. Thy second duty will already have become cleaner. CARLYLE.

Do the duty which lies nearest to you. Every duty which is bidden to wait returns with seven fresh duties at its back. KINGSLEY

SPECIAL NOTICE—Donations of Cake are solicited from all, same to be used at the reception. Please leave all donations at the Church as early on Wednesday next as possible.

IMPORTANT NOTICE—The Sunday School is in need of more teachers. In this large congregation are there not many that can and will offer their services? All are invited to attend our Bible Class, either as visitors or members. Send all your children to the school and make it a prosperous year.

Seats will be held at the morning service until immediately after the second singing. All seats will be free for the evening service.

ALL NOTICES for the Calendar must be written and left at the Church on Friday mornings, between 9 and 12 o'clock. No announcements will be made from the pulpit.

This Church is now starting on a new year. Our pastor has returned from a much needed rest and is prepared to more than do his part towards building up in our community a strong, useful organization. Can we say as much for those who Sunday after Sunday listen to his wise counsel and advice? For the past the Trustees are fully justified in making the statement that the amount of financial support received is not what it should be; falling far below what could reasonably be expected from so large a congregation. Please give this matter your serious consideration.

There are a few nice sittings that can be secured by applying to the Sexton.

The ladies are preparing a fine entertainment, to be given sometime in November. Everyone should lend them what assistance they can so as to make the financial result as large as possible.

"He that feels contempt for any living thing hath faculties that he hath never used, and thought with him is in its infancy."—ANON.

Everybody interested in our cause should subscribe for the Pacific Unitarian. It costs but one dollar a year. Subscriptions received by the Sexton.

October turned my maple leaves to gold;

Soon these will slip from out the twig's weak hold

The purple oak leaf falls; the birchen bough
Drops its bright spoil like arrow-heads of gold.

If every person in this congregation would deposit not less than five cents in the baskets what a nice sum the total would be. Surely nearly all can contribute that little amount once a week. Why not make it a rule to do so and as much more as you can afford.

SEATTLE TIMES: One of the most brilliant entertainments ever witnessed in the city of Seattle was the game of "Living Whist" as played last night with superb success at the Armory. So anxious were spectators for a fine view that long before the commencement standing room only could be found. TUESDAY

7:30 p. m. All young people interested in the organization of a society whose aim shall be mutual improvement, literary and musical enjoyment, and the furtherance of the interests of the Unity Society at large, are requested to meet at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday.

MRS. A. G. BARTLETT,
3rd Vice Pres. Unity League.

THURSDAY

2:00 p. m. Unity Aid Branch hold their regular weekly meeting. All ladies of the Church invited.

8:00 p. m. Unity Club Lecture Course; subject: "Grand Canyon of the Colorado Illustrated," by Robert Brewster Stanton. The lecture will be Appeals are made Sunday after Sunday for a more generous response to our calls for financial assistance. So far the result shows but little, if any, improvement. Why is it? What would your real estate and personal property be worth if no such things as churches existed? The church as well as the police force does its share towards preserving law and order. Do you owe it anything for this? Churches must be supported by voluntary contributions, trusting the people and praying that they will do right in all things. The church should not be a burden upon anyone, nor would it be if all performed their whole duty. Let this congregation set the example.

The Pastor will be pleased to meet any of his congregation who desire it, immediately after the close of each morning service.

Seats will be held at the morning service until immediately after the second singing. All seats will be free for the evening service.

Strangers are especially invited to register their names and address. Register kept in West Vestibule.

Everybody interested in our cause should subscribe for the Pacific Unitarian. It costs but one dollar a year. Subscriptions received by the Sexton.

ALL NOTICES for the Calendar must be written and left at the Church on Friday mornings, between 9 and 12 o'clock. No announcements will be made from the pulpit.

If any of the attendants of this Church who are interested in its success were asked the question: "How can I do the most good?" what would be their answer? A good reply in our estimation, would be: "Do all you can, both morally and financially, to help push forward the work our good pastor is doing; clear up the debt of the Church; increase the revenue, for a church must have money to run it the same as any other institution, and should be run strictly upon a business basis, which teaches honesty by its practice." Please increase the amounts you drop in the basket. We need your financial help.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Make up your mind to give a liberal sum to help pay up the debt of the church. You will be asked soon to subscribe for that purpose.

It is our opinion that a concerted action on the part of all who wish our pastor to remain with us for the years to come, and to continue the grand work he has but begun, would pay every dollar we owe and increase the revenue to that point where we would not be obliged to constantly remind you of our financial condition. Will someone start the ball to rolling by offering a goodly amount?

The Pastor will be pleased to meet any of his congregation who desire it, immediately after the close of each morning service.

Again after two months vacation, we meet together for the purpose of listening to our loved pastor. He, as well as ourselves we hope have received the full benefits that come from a rest after months of labor. We start under more favorable circumstances than we ever have as a church—the mortgage on our property paid, and one of the most valuable and central locations in the city. We are now in a position to do good work and plenty of it. Let us try and make the year before us one of pleasure, profit and good works, and this can only be accomplished by all sinking their differences, if any exist, and work as one for good.

We wish to call the attention of the congregation to the importance of the fact that more interest should be taken by you all in the Sunday School. Teachers are wanted; more should attend the bible class. Parents should visit the School occasionally and see that their children attend regularly and not be tardy. It is to the children we must look for future results, and they need more of our attention.

ALL NOTICES for the Calendar must be written and left at the Church on Friday mornings, between 9 and 12 o'clock. No announcements will be made from the pulpit.

Seats will be held at the morning service until immediately after the second singing. All seats will be free for the evening service. Please report any violations of above rules to the chief usher.

Doctrines of Unity Church.

CHRIST'S GOSPEL AND ADAM'S FALL

The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord.—Luke 4: 18-19.

DEDUCTIONS.

1. Christ quoted the above passage from Isaiah 61: 1-2; and he declared that he had come to fulfill the mission which this passage describes. "This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears." This is Christ's own answer to those people who desire to know what His mission was.

2. It is worthy of observation that Christ added to the quotation the words, "the recovering of sight to the blind," and that he omitted the words, "the day of vengeance of our God." He did not come to preach the wrath of God; for that would not be gospel. He came to preach glad tidings, and to open the eyes which false doctrine and false belief had shut.

3. The so-called fall of man is the basis of the Trinitarian scheme of theological salvation. After Adam and Eve had eaten the forbidden fruit of the tree of knowledge, the curse of God fell upon them and their descendants, and it could not be removed without the murder of Christ. If this be so, is it not wonderful that Christ never referred to the fall of man, that he never mentioned the name of Adam, and that Adam's name occurs but once in the Four Gospels, namely, in the genealogy of Luke's Gospel, where he is called the son of God. Eve's name is not once mentioned in the gospels. Christ never said that He came to pay Adam's sins with his death; nor did He ever teach that a murder was necessary to make God love and save His own children. He evidently took no interest in original sin and total depravity. If the disobedience of Adam and Eve were important enough to be the foundation of conservative theology, why was Christ silent on such a subject? He surely came to reveal everything that is essential to salvation and development. He made it exceedingly plain that we are to devote all our powers to the worship of God, and that we are to treat our neighbors lovingly and conscientiously. Theologians care very little about what Christ said; but they do care a great deal about their own opinions and their inherited creeds.

INSPIRED SCRIPTURE.

DEFINITION.

Can we give a definition of inspiration in the language of the New Testament?

"Prophecy did not come in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spoke, when they were moved by the Holy Ghost."—Second Peter 1: 21.

It is here stated that inspired utterances can come only from the lips of religious and virtuous men.

PURPOSES.

Can we state the purposes of inspiration, in the language of the New Testament?

"Every scripture, inspired by God, is useful for doctrine, conviction, correction and growth in virtue."—Second Timothy 3: 16.

Here it is stated that inspired scripture has four uses.

DOCTRINE.

It reveals the principles and laws of religion and morality; and it gives information about things which we should study and believe, in order to be able to give a reason for the hopes which we cherish.

CONVICTION.

We ought to have convictions about religious and moral truths; and we ought to study these truths so earnestly and prayerfully that they would become the guides, comforts, and joys of our lives. People need more than second-hand beliefs, convictions, and religion. They need those convictions which grow out of the application of their reason, conscience, and spirit, to matters of faith and conduct. Those persons who accept inherited creeds, or the views of other people about religion, without careful and unprejudiced investigation, do not experience vital and spiritual religion.

CORRECTION.

If our conceptions of religion be wild, irrational, extravagant, superstitious, hysterical, or immoral, a study of inspired scripture will prune, adjust, subdue, and spiritualize them. Inspired writers help us to be wise critics of our beliefs and lives.

GROWTH.

The thoughts of every individual should grow larger and truer with his progress in religion and morality. It is reported in the second chapter of Luke that "Jesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and favor with God and man." His increase in wisdom implies increase in the number and quality of his thoughts. The inspired utterances of wise and holy men and women teach us how to grow in religious wisdom and moral grace.

CHRIST'S INSPIRATION.

Who inspired Christ?

"Jesus said, my doctrine is not mine, but His that sent me."—John 7: 16.

"I speak to the world those things which I have heard of Him."—John 8: 26.

"As my Father hath taught me, I speak these things."—John 8: 28.

That scripture is inspired which inspires us to think, aspire, and work for religion and morality.

Doctrines of Unity Church.

THE DOCTRINE OF HARVEST

According to the law of cause and effect, it is impossible to do anything without certain results following therefrom. If we sow oats, we do not see a harvest of turnips. If we plant orange trees, we expect that we shall have oranges and not hawthorns. Disease is the result of disobeying some laws of our physical system. He who toils wisely and conscientiously in any department of life is sure to reap his rewards. Drunkenness produces mental and physical misery. These are facts of life and the universe. We cannot live a wicked life, and expect to have a happy life.

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the spirit shall of the spirit reap life everlasting, and let us not be weary in well doing; for in due time we shall reap, if we faint not."—Galations 6:7-9.

This is Paul's doctrine, and it is also a law of nature. If a man live a sinful life, he is sowing the seeds of hell. If he live a good life, he is sowing the seeds of heaven.

Let us have some particulars about the flesh and the spirit. What does it mean to sow to the flesh? What does it mean to sow to the spirit?

"The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they who do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law."—Galations 5: 19-23.

All this shows that God does not forgive sins in such a way as to separate misery from sinning, and that virtue, by a law of the universe, merits heaven. The harvest is sure, no matter what theologians may say. No man can prove that God gives heaven to a man that deserves hell. If anyone, when drunk, fall and lose a hand or an arm, can he ever have the member restored, by his belief in some theory of atonement? If anyone destroy his nervous system by over-work, or worry, can he ever recover what he has lost by believing that somebody else will suffer for his sins? Can anyone ever think of the evils he has done to father, mother, brother, sister, neighbor, without feeling sorry for his cruelties? Suppose a son, that has brought his father to his grave by ill-treatment, should be asked, when he has repented of his sins, "are you sorry for having treated your father so badly?" Would he not in this world, or in the next say, "I wish I had never done the wrong." J. S. THOMSON, Pastor.

DEFINITIONS OF RELIGION IN THE BIBLE.

All Christian Churches profess the highest spiritual respect for the Bible; and yet they do not accept its definitions of religion. They make creeds that express their views of religion; and they are loyal to these creeds, while they reject, or ignore, the comprehensive and clear statements in the Bible.

"Hear, O Israel the Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."—Deuteronomy 6. 4-5.

This is the definition of religion which Moses proclaimed by the inspiration of Heaven; and he defined morality as follows:—

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."—Leviticus 19:18.

Christ joined together the two Mosaic definitions—love for God and love for man; and he added the clause, "with all thy mind."

The Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this: thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these."—Mark 12:29-31.

Christ said to the lawyer who had asked the question, "What shall I do to inherit eternal life?" and who had repeated Christ's definitions of religion and morality: "This do and thou shalt live."—Luke 10:25-28.

Another Old Testament prophet defined religion and morality thus:—

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

The Churches would not be satisfied with that plain and practical religion; and still they claim the prophet was inspired.

Peter said: "I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him."—Acts 10:34-35.

This quotation shows that Peter was much more liberal and spiritual than the modern Christians who call other religions bad names.

Paul said to the jailer: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."—Acts 16: 31.

This proves that he who accepts the gospel of Christ, as it is illustrated in his character, works, and explanations, is a Christian and a true disciple.

James said: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."—James 1:27.

The Bible does not say that we must be Catholics, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists, Unitarians, Universalists, Congregationalists, or Methodists, in order to be saved.

Doctrines of Unity Church.

THE HUMAN TRINITY

"The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."—First Thessalonians 5: 23.

Paul, who wrote these words, taught that the human being is a trinity of spirit, soul, and body, and that no part of this trinity should be neglected in the formation of character.

SPIRIT

The spirit of a man is his divine and eternal life. It transcends our earthly life, and feels its relationship to the real things of the invisible world. Its roots are in the life of God. It claims God as its inheritance, because it is his child.

"The spirit beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God; and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ."—Romans 8: 16-17.

"All things are yours."—First Corinthians 3: 21.

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his spirit; for the spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God."—First Corinthians 2: 9-10.

SOUL

The soul is the creator of the body, and it superintends the agencies and processes of the body. It is the artistic attribute of the spirit. The soul is the unconscious life of man. It digests our food, and distributes it to all parts of the body: and it draws from the atmosphere food and forces for repairing and sustaining the body. It makes skin, hair, horn, muscle, nerve, brain, eyes, ears, feet, hands, joints, and juices. The heart beats from birth to death, the lungs do their work, and all the other organs discharge their functions, because the soul is awake day and night, guiding the wonderful energies of our physical life, and faithfully performing every detail of its work. We are "fearfully and wonderfully made."

BODY

The body is the spirit's earthly home. We call the dead body of a man his "mortal remains." At death, the soul leaves the body forever. It will never need its earthly house again.

"Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return to God who gave it."—Ecclesiastes 12: 7.

The soul will always weave garments for the spirit, out of the materials placed at its disposal in any world.

"Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, neither doth corruption inherit incorruption."—First Corinthians 15: 50.

The spiritual world into which the spirits of the dead are summoned at death has spiritual materials for the spiritual body which the soul will make.

"There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body."—First Corinthians 15: 44.

The body is the means through which the spirit can come into contact with our planet. While the body is properly used in all secular pursuits, yet it has certain religious duties to perform.

"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.—Romans 12: 1.

NOTICES

Will the ladies who have promised donations to the Aid Society for the carpet fund please report in the Church Parlors, Thursday afternoon next, October 8th?

The Trustees earnestly request that all those indebted to the church will pay to the Sexton at once the amount due. We need every dollar, and where possible would like to have an advance payment.

The Kings Daughters will hold their regular meetings every Thursday at four, and the first Sunday of the month at six o'clock. A program will be arranged for the Sunday meetings.

Once again have we the pleasure of receiving our pastor and his wife from their yearly vacation. We know that all are pleased to extend the right hand of fellowship and bid them both a hearty welcome. His journey in a foreign land we know has filled up the store-house with many useful lessons that we will receive the benefit of in good time. We know he will do his part; can we say as much for ourselves? More interest should be taken by individual attendants of this Church, and if we can pull together and pull strong we will succeed in building up a strong, powerful church, capable of doing much good in our community.

Doctrines of Unity Church.

DR. DAVIDSON'S BELIEF.

Rev. Samuel Davidson, D. D., L. L. D., was for a long time professor of Hebrew at the Independent (Congregational) College in Manchester, England. The Scotsman said: "Intimation has just been received that the Queen, on the recommendation of Mr. Gladstone has been pleased to award a pension of £100 a year on the Civil List to Dr. Davidson, in recognition of his eminent scholarship and his important contributions to theological science. Dr. Davidson, who is now in his eighty-fourth year, has been known for more than half a century as a master of the modern German criticism, especially of the New Testament; and his learned works on Biblical criticism, introduction and cognates, have exercised great influence on the development and study of those sciences in all English-speaking countries."

The Duke of Argyle, Lord Napier, the Bishop of Durham, Canon Farrar, and many others, signed the memorial setting forth Dr. Davidson's great services to the cause of theology.

In a letter to John Burnham, Esq., of Orange, California, Dr. Davidson says, among other things: "What is wanted at the present day is to bring men back to the ethical and parabolic teaching of him who was pre-eminently the Son of God; i. e. to the Sermon on the Mount and the parables. I think his most authentic teaching is embodied in the Sermon on the Mount and the parables. The view which the first believers in Christ took of his person was what is called the Ebionite—Unitarian—one. The Apostle of the Gentiles held the Arian view of Christ. The doctrine of the Trinity is a post-apostolic development.

"I believe that the punishment of the wicked hereafter will be remedial, and that all will be finally happy. The fatherhood of God involves the idea of perfect felicity to his children. If a Being of infinite goodness and love controls the boundless universe, we cannot but cherish the hope that such goodness and love will overcome all evil.

"All rational creatures will be happy forever in the enjoyment of their Father's love. One who purified and exalted the Messianic idea, who taught the fatherhood of God, who was without sin, who exemplified the divine in humanity as it never had been, and probably never will be, who was the image of the unseen One, and inaugurated a religion which has all the essentials of universality, cannot have inculcated the fearful doctrine of endless torture in the next world.

"I had resolved to speak of what is called original sin, and the atonement. The former was rightly termed by Adam Clarke, 'original nonsense;' the latter must be resolved into self-sacrifice. The moral and spiritual influence of Christ's self-sacrificing love upon sinful man is the reconciliation to God which is effected by the Gospel."

Doctrines of Unity Church.

PERSISTENT PRAYER.

"He said unto them, which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?' And he from within shall answer and say, 'Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.' I say unto you, 'Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth."

"And I say unto you, 'ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

"If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Ghost to them that ask him?"—Luke 11: 5-13.

REMARKS.

1. Christ used the commonest things of earth to illustrate the grandest things of the spirit.

2. When he refers to the fact that an earthly parent gives his hungry child good food, when it is asked for, he uses that form of reasoning which logicians call argumentum ad hominem. God is better than an earthly parent; but an earthly parent would not refuse food to his hungry child; and, therefore, God will give his needy children food for their hunger. It is one of the crimes of orthodoxy that it represents God to be worse than a wicked parent. God is represented as the author of eternal damnation, as the consigner of million of his own best children into the merciless hands of his own eternal enemy, and as the delighted spectator of their eternal tortures. No tears, no repentance, no prayers, will ever receive forgiveness from him in the next world. Christ contradicts this terrible blasphemy with his divine emphasis.

3. Prayer has its own conditions. It should be moral, spiritual, emotional, and intellectual. God's answers to our prayers never violate the laws of the universe. Prayers that are curses, that breathe the spirit of revenge, that ask for impossible answers, that are foolish and selfish, are never answered. Prayers for the real needs of life, for guidance in difficulties, for light in darkness, for strength and grace to do our duties, and for wisdom to resist temptations, or to keep away from them, receive answers.

4. Christ teaches us that our prayers should be earnest and persistent, and that, if we pray in faith and with patience, God will certainly grant us answers in his own good time and way, and that no real prayer has ever failed to receive God's response.

NOTICES

"The King's Daughters" desire to decorate the church, next Sunday, November 22nd, with fruit and vegetables, which they intend donating—after it has performed its mission of decoration—to the Children's Home Society, on Twenty-fifth street, and also to the Free Kindergarten on Ord street. Contributions are earnestly solicited from the congregation. We would rather that many would bring a very small offering, than that few would send large quantities, as we should like to interest the majority of the congregation in our church work.

The children of the Los Angeles Orphan's Home, assisted by the Board of Managers, will give a reception at the Home corner of Yale and Alpine Sts., on Tuesday Nov. 17th from two until ten p. m. No special invitations will be issued, but every one is cordially urged to attend, and see the children and the work that is being done for them.

The Kings Daughters will hold their regular meetings every Friday at 3:30, and the first Sunday of the month at four o'clock. A program will be arranged for the Sunday meetings.

ALL NOTICES for the Calendar must be written and left at the Church on Friday mornings between 9 and 12 o'clock. No announcement will be made from pulpit.

RENTED SEATS will be held at the morning service until immediately after the second singing. All seats will be free for any evening services. Strangers will please apply to the ushers for seats. Seat holders will please report any violations of above rules to the chief usher.

SINCERITY IN PRAYER.

He spake this parable unto certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

"Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner,' I tell you this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."—Luke 18: 1-14.

The prayer of the Pharisee is self-praise from beginning to end. He tells God how good he is, because he fasts, pays taxes, cheats nobody, and keeps the seventh commandment. He compares himself with the publican, and he informs Omniscience that he is far superior to the publican. He would not stand near the publican. His conventional theology made him vain, haughty, and uncharitable. His prayer, however, is not wholly without merit; for it expresses gratitude to God for this boasted superiority. The publican was a sinner, and he realized his sinfulness and weakness. He prayed for mercy, and he confessed his sins. His prayer was sincere; and Christ recommended its sincerity, and said that the publican went home more justified than the Pharisee. Christ teaches in this parable that the sincere prayer of a poor, ignorant, and self-condemned sinner is better than the prayer of a vain theologian, and that sincerity is a very important element in prayer.

"Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayer: therefore, ye shall receive the greater damnation."—Matt. 23: 14.

In the days of Christ, some men were conventional saints and heartless robbers of poor and defenseless widows and orphans. These robbers were prominent members of religious organizations. They were defenders of the popular theology. They strove to conceal their crimes under the cloak of religious profession. They pretended to be religious in order to prosecute their schemes of robbery with greater success. Christ was acquainted with the ways of these hypocrites. He understood how they deceived the public with their professions of religion and how they cheated the poor and the innocent. He declared that their prayers deserved and received the condemnation of God. He taught that they would have been less sinful, if they had not prayed in public. Their long prayers in public made them the receivers of "the greater damnation." People that join churches, not from religious and moral convictions, but to help themselves in their business or profession, or social advancement, are practical atheists. They would be Mohammedans in Turkey, Hindoos in India, Buddhists in Japan, Catholics in Spain, or Protestants in England, if they could use these religions to help themselves in reaching their worldly aims. Sometimes people are told that, if they join this or that church, their success in politics, in society, in commerce, in office, will be greatly aided, and that, if they belong to other churches, their worldly interests will suffer. Christ declares in the plainest words that these hollow professors and practical atheists will "receive the greater damnation," and he teaches that it is better not to pray at all than to offer the false prayers of cunning hypocrites.

UNION, LIBERTY.

Tune—"Scots, wha hae wi' Wallace bled."

1 Hail, our country's natal morn,
Hail, our spreading kindred born,
Hail, thou banner not yet torn,
Waving o'er the free!
While this day in festal throng
Millions swell the patriot song;
Shall not we thy notes prolong,
Hallowed Jubilee?

2 Who would sever freedom's shrine?
Who would draw the invidious line?
Though by birth, one spot be mine,
Dear is all the rest;
Dear to me the South's fair land,
Dear the central Mountain band,
Dear New England's rocky strand,
Dear the prairied West.

3. By our altars, pure and free,
By our Law's deep-rooted tree,
By the past dread memory,
By our Washington:
By our common parent tongue,
By our hopes, bright, bouyant, young,
By the tie of country strong,
We will still be one.

Fathers! have ye bled in vain?
Ages! must ye droop again?
Maker! shall we rashly stain
Blessings sent by Thee?
No! Receive our solemn vow,
While before thy throne we bow,
Ever to maintain as now,
"Union, Liberty."
